CRITICAL OVERVIEW

Being in this field there is always lots you can learn, be it trending design materials and technologies, softwares or client handling. J.DHARMENDRA has always guided and encouraged us to spend time in learning them along with our work schedule to help us improve as individuals. They maintain a great client relationship and put in a lot of energy and time to understand their client's needs and workout a practical yet creative vision out of it. The entire team of THARANI INTERIORS have been very warm and friendly towards me and have helped me equip myself as an DESIGNER in a better way.
