Venue: Seminar Hall I, Sathyabama Institute of Science and Technology, Chennai

TIME: 3:30 pm to 4:30 pm Sem: II

Faculty Handling: Mr. Richard

Certificate Course in Functional English qualifies students in understanding the basics of English language. Candidates are introduced to the varied aspects of the course which concentrates on bettering their skills and proficiencies of the language. The program covers the six aspects of communication which includes public speaking, application in technical fields, written communication, listening skills, polishing phonetics and grammar. Candidates are extensively trained in articulating words, polishing their speaking skills by eliminating the influence of mother tongue, understanding the right tone of communication and much more. The program is divided into theory which would concentrate on improving four important skills of communication including writing, speaking, listening and reading. Candidates are introduced to the two most important aspects of learning English that is listening and speaking, which are often neglected in the process. The program ensures students are well trained in understanding the importance of English skills in the real world of business and education.
