CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

1.1. Online Shopping

Online shopping is a form of electronic commerce which allows consumers to directly buy products from a seller over the Internet using a web browser or a mobile app. Consumers find a product of interest by visiting the website of the retailer directly or by searching among alternative vendors using a shopping search engine, which displays the same product's availability and pricing at different e-retailers. Customers can shop online using a range of different computers and devices, including desktop computers, laptops, tablet computers and smartphones.

An online shop evokes the physical analogy of buying products or services at a regular shopping centre; the process is called business-to-consumer (B2C) online shopping. When an online store is set up to enable businesses to buy from another businesses, the process is called business-to-business (B2B) online shopping. A typical online store enables the customer to browse the firm's range of products and services, view photos or images of the products, along with information about the product specifications, features and prices.

Online stores usually enable shoppers to use "search" features to find specific models, brands or items. Online customers must have access to the Internet and a valid method of payment in order to complete a transaction, such as a credit card, debit card, etc..

1.2 The Convenience of Online Shopping:

- BACKEND:

The backend duties involve the MYSQL connection and a service. For the backend actions, a php document is done in backend and thereby the MYSQL database is connected to the application.

For this to be carried out, first of all a mysql database should be created and a database should be made and thereby it should be connected with backend through the php code connection link.

The artists, both local and international, are often provided the opportunity to exhibit the work they have created at ART+BAY at the end of their residency. ART+BAY also provides qualified art consultation services for its discerning collectors, building on and enhancing existing collections, as well as helping establish new collections.

Through these initiatives, ART+BAY maintains its commitment to dynamically engage and add value to the local and international art communities.
