The Department of Information Technology, School of Computing in association with CSI has organized FDP on “Sensor Technology” on 16th and 17th of Jan 2017. Dr.Martin Leo Manickam from St.Joseph’s college of Engineering has presented an excellent session on the topic “Sensor Technology”. The faculties were able to get insight on the different sensor technologies.

The poster is a vertical rectangular layout with a white background and a blue and red decorative header. At the top, the Sathyabama Institute of Science & Technology logo is on the left, and the DNV-GL Quality System Certification logo is on the right. The central text identifies the institution and its accreditation. Below this, the School of Computing and Department of Information Technology are listed, followed by a row of accreditation logos (NBA, NAAC, AICTE, NIRF, ISO, STARS). The association with the Computer Society of India is noted. The main title 'Faculty Development Program on SENSOR TECHNOLOGY' is prominently displayed in a blue box. The speaker's name, date, and time are listed in red and black text. A blue box states 'No Registration Fee!' and 'e-Certificate will be provided'. The registration link is provided at the bottom. The footer lists the organizers and coordinators.
